White Wine

Sauvignon Blanc “ZOE’S” 2007, Peninsula Ridge VQA Niagara Peninsula..... $ 40.00

We are very proud to offer to you, the first in a series of Jonathans’ Private Label Wines. Zoe’s Sauvignon Blanc has aromas of honeydew melon and mineral with some floral notes and a touch of apple. There is a wonderful balance of fruit and acidity on the palate with flavours of lemony pear and mineral, ending with a long finish of citrus peel, and again a touch of mineral

Red Wine

Shiraz, Errázuriz ‘Max Reserva’ 2007, Valle de Aconcagua, Chile..... $ 48.00

Wine & Spirits gives a 90 point rating to this wine. It is deep ruby red and violet in colour, with a highly aromatic intensity that showcases notes of blackberries and cherries. It is a well rounded wine, with tannins that deliver a soft structure and velvety texture. Great with steaks, game and roasted meats.

Notes on the Decline of Romance

Once upon a time, an Alsatian warrior fought so valiantly for a Magyar King, that he was granted the hand of the King's daughter as reward. The Princess, fearing the effects of displacement, brought Hungarian vines to her new home in Alsace. The wines from the vines she brought were called Tokay after the famous Hungarian dessert wine known as Tokaji. Recent EU agreements have found that the Tokay d'Alsace infringes on the proprietary name of the Hungarian wine and Alsatian producers have agreed slowly to phase out the name Tokay, expunging all of the latent homesickness from the wine. There is, after all, no relationship between Furmint, the grape in Tokaji, and Pinot Gris. Tant pis, no?
